

Preparing For Marriage Covenant

- We covenant to be members before starting our premarital counseling
- We covenant to be sexually pure from now until we are married.
- We covenant to continue to live separately from each other until we are married.
- We covenant to be open and honest in our premarital counseling sessions.
- We covenant to spend time together completing all homework readings and assignments.
- We covenant where possible we will work with, family, Godly peers, and our pastors to actively seek God's will and purpose for our relationship and in determining if we should enter into marriage.
- We covenant to be actively involved in a small group both now and after our marriage.
